

MICHAEL REGINA

(904) 945-6766 – michaeleverettregina@yahoo.com
www.michaeleregina.com

EDUCATION University of North Florida – Jacksonville, FL
Bachelor of Fine Arts, Painting and Drawing, Minor in Literature – 2005

EXPERIENCE Commissioned Painter/Illustrator

Freelance and Gallery Representation 2005 – Present
Use of traditional and digital medium for completion of commissioned paintings and illustration, in both public and private collections. Responsible for bringing a client's vision to reality.

“Amulet” Graphic Novels – Scholastic Press

Color Assistant - 2008-present

Aided in the completion of the upcoming sequels to comics creator, Kazu Kibuishi's, graphic novel series, “Amulet.” Responsible for laying in flat colors over original pencil art for later rendering. Recently assisted in the final painting stages of pages as well for book 3, due in September 2010.

From Death 'Til Now

Creator/Writer/Artist 2007 – Present

An online graphic novel depicting the epic journey of two friends and their quest to save the world. The first volume print edition is due in 2010.

Barton Productions

Film Editor/Graphic Designer/ 3D Animation Artist 2006-2007

Responsible for editing of video productions and design of DVD covers, special effects elements and production grip.

First Coast News – NBC/ABC News Affiliate

Film Editor 2005-2008

Award winning editor for daily newscasts and special story packages. Expected to meet tight deadlines and maintain a quality of production excellence.

SKILLS

Traditional Media -

Classically trained in a variety of drawing and painting techniques – oil, charcoal, graphite, pen and ink, watercolor, acrylic.

Digital Media-

Proficient in both Macintosh and PC operating systems. Highly knowledgeable and experienced in Photoshop CS3, Dreamweaver CS 3, Corel Painter 9, Avid Editing, Celtx, Final Draft and Microsoft Word. Intermediate knowledge of Adobe Flash CS3.

Examples of Artwork and Full Resume available at: www.michaeleregina.com